

§ 2.14

Office _____
Derived from _____ Declassify on _____

If a document is classified on the basis of more than one source document or classification guide, the authority for classification shall be shown on the "DERIVED FROM" line as follows: "MULTIPLE CLASSIFIED SOURCES". In these cases, the derivative classifier must maintain the identification of each source with the file or record copy of the derivatively classified document. A document derivatively classified on the basis of a source document that is marked "MULTIPLE CLASSIFIED SOURCES" shall cite the source document on its "DERIVED FROM" line rather than the term: "MULTIPLE CLASSIFIED SOURCES". Preparers of such documentation shall ensure that the identification of the derivative classifier is indicated. Use of the term "MULTIPLE CLASSIFIED SOURCES," is not to be a substitute for the identity of the derivative classification authority.

(b) Downgrading and Declassification Instructions. Dates or events for automatic downgrading or declassification shall be carried forward from the source document. This includes the notation "ORIGINATING AGENCY'S DETERMINATION REQUIRED" to indicate that the document is not to be downgraded or declassified automatically, or instructions as directed by a classification guide, which shall be shown on a "DOWNGRADE TO" or "DECLASSIFY ON" line as follows:

DOWNGRADE TO _____
ON (date, description of event, or OADR) or,
DECLASSIFY ON (date, description of event,
or OADR)

Subpart C—Downgrading and Declassification

§ 2.14 Listing downgrading and declassification authorities 3.1(b)].

Downgrading and declassification authority may be exercised by the official authorizing the original classification, if that official is still serving in the same position; a successor in that capacity; a supervisory official of either; or officials delegated such authority in writing by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Assistant Secretary (Management). Such officials may not downgrade or declassify information which is classified at a level exceeding their own designated classification authority. A listing of officials delegated such authority, in writing, shall be identified on TD F 71-01.11 (Report of Authorized Downgrading and Declassification Officials) and reported annually each October 15th to the Departmental Director of Security who shall maintain them on behalf of the Assistant Secretary (Management). Current listings of officials so designated shall be maintained by Treasury bureaus and offices within the Departmental Offices.

§ 2.15 Declassification policy [3.1].

In making determinations under section 3.1(a) of the Order, officials shall respect the intent of the Order to protect foreign government information and confidential foreign sources.

§ 2.16 Downgrading and declassification markings.

Whenever a change is made in the original classification or in the dates of downgrading or declassification of any classified information, it shall be promptly and conspicuously marked to indicate the change, the authority for the action, the date of the action, and the identity of the person taking the action. Earlier classification markings shall be cancelled or otherwise obliterated when practicable. See also § 2.7(h).

§ 2.17 Systematic review for declassification [3.3].

(a) Permanent Records. Systematic review is applicable only to those classified records and presidential papers or records that the Archivist of the United States, acting under the Federal Records Act, has determined to be of sufficient historical or other value to warrant permanent retention.

(b) Non-Permanent Classified Records. Non-permanent classified records shall be disposed of in accordance with schedules approved by the Administrator of General Services under the Records Disposal Act. These schedules shall provide for the continued retention of records subject to an ongoing
